

MOHINI DALJEET SINGH- CHIEF EXECUTIVE- MAX INDIA FOUNDATION

Mohini Daljeet Singh, a social worker and an educationist, is widely travelled. She started her social service journey by volunteering as a student with Mother Teresa's Home "Prem Niwas", in Lucknow, where she learnt her lessons of compassion and selfless social giving.

An army daughter and army wife, she has spent more than three decades on "hands-on" social and welfare work to benefit army families in the health, education and personal counselling areas

As CEO of Max India Foundation, Mohini Daljeet Singh has worked for the underprivileged on the health platform benefitting 26 Lakh beneficiaries at 704 locations and partnering with 410 NGOs. The Foundation has adopted two villages in Uttarakhand in 2015 for intervention on the issue of health and hygiene.

Mohini has also represented Max India Foundation as a panellist and anchor at various CSR platforms in India and abroad, including that of CII, ASSOCHAM, PHD Chamber of Commerce, CSR Live week, BRICS CCI centre for CSR and IICA.

Under her stewardship as the founding CEO, Max India Foundation has won several awards including the Golden Peacock Award for CSR for four consecutive years. Recently she has been awarded 'Best Women Leadership Excellence award in CSR' at The South Asian Partnership Summit & Business Awards held in Colombo. Earlier, she received the award for "Excellent Social Accomplishments" by 'Samast Bharat'. The award was given away by His Holiness Dalai Lama at Dharamsala.

Committed to the cause of uplifting the lives of the less privileged, she has plans to cover the miles of Max India Foundation's journey with Seva Bhav and Excellence, the Max Hallmark.
